Comment to Author

Reviewer 1

The manuscript requires significant language editing and proofreading to correct grammatical errors and improve readability.

Provide clearer explanation of the system architecture and algorithms, including more detailed diagrams and module interactions.

Expand the experimental evaluation with more datasets and comparative analysis against existing cybersecurity frameworks or IDS systems.

Improve the presentation of figures, tables, and performance metrics to better demonstrate the effectiveness of the proposed system.

Reviewer 2

1. Proposed methodology is not visible.
2. Check conference template for detailed guidelines.

Best regards,
